

The Stephen Sexton Training Institute

Presents

Playful Interventions for Children when Dealing with Early Childhood Trauma

Amy Baur, LCSW, RPT-S
Psychotherapist

Maryville Stevens Center
1150 N River Rd, Des Plaines

May 3, 2017, 9:00AM-Noon

Doors open at 8:30AM

To register please contact Gloria Brownlee at 847-294-5402 or brownleeg@maryvilleacademy.org

For Counselors, Educators, Parents and Community Members

By participating in this workshop, participants will learn:

- Importance of bonding and attachments for early development;
- Negative impacts on attachment;
- Sexual Abuse, the impact on development and ongoing behavioral indicators; and,
- Therapeutic interventions including play therapy.

CEU's will be provided. No cost for seminar.

Ms. Baur currently has a private psychotherapy practice located in Des Plaines, providing counseling across all age groups. Amy specializes in treating survivors of abuse, grief/loss issues, PTSD, attachment disorders, stress, parenting issues, divorce issues, adoption and foster care. Her prior work experience includes clinical supervision with The Bridge Youth and Family Services in Palatine and serving as a Clinical Therapist at Lifelink/Bensenville Home Society in Chicago, The Learning House in Wheeling and The Jewish Children's Bureau in Chicago.

Maryville

Caring for Children. Strengthening Families.